Welcome!

Music 8 is a continuation of the grade 7 exploratory guitar course. This year, students will build upon their note reading skills, melody picking, and basic chord strumming while also diving deeper into chord progressions, song writing and looking into the history of blues music and its influence on today's popular music. Students will play and sing in a fun and supportive atmosphere. This course will provide the foundational skills needed for students wishing to pursue guitar on their own or continue on in a Guitar Ensemble course at RSS next year.

What do I need:

You will need to bring a pencil with you to every class. The school will provide a guitar for classroom use and Wentworth Music has graciously supplied music folders for students.

How will I be assessed:

Work Habit – G/S/N

Along with regular work habit criteria, students will also be observed for demonstrating Social Responsibility. Participation in a musical ensemble takes a certain amount of courage and it is important that EVERYONE respects EVERYONE else. Part of your mark will be based on Social Responsibility within this class. It is important that all students contribute to creating an inviting, comfortable and non-threatening environment in the classroom. Risk taking is part of performance and all students have the right to take risks without fear of ridicule or judgement. Ridicule and judgment will not be tolerated within the classroom and will result in immediate removal from class.

What is expected of me:

It is expected that students show Respect while in the music room. Respect to other students, Respect to the teacher, and Respect to the instruments and other equipment in the room.

Students will see success in this course if they:

- Attend regularly and come to class on time with their supplies
- Have an open mind, a positive attitude and a spirit of cooperation
- Participate fully in all class warm up's and activities
- Behave in an appropriate and respectful manner
- Take proper care of their assigned guitar.

The use of our school district's instruments is a privilege. Abuse and inappropriate behavior with the guitar may result in the student losing the use of the instrument and doing written music theory assignments instead. It could also incur a repair or replacement cost (up to $190) if deemed applicable.

Covid Safety Protocols:

We will be following the recommendations put forth in the document: Guidance for Music Classes in British Columbia (<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1KG2rE1rU-NENxbQsuYN20xnM9TBINn3Z/view>). Specifically, students will be asked to practice proper hand hygiene before and after each instrument use and as we will be singing, students and staff will be asked to wear a mask in class.

PLEASE NOTE: Cell Phones, iPods and headphones will not be used in this class therefore students should not have them on their body at any time during music class. These items belong in a back pack or locker. As per school policy, parents needing to reach their children during class time may do so through the school office.
